

Call for Nominations for 2020

Nominate someone now for a 2020 award! SERC, in collaboration with the SERC Foundation, is seeking nominations of individuals, organizations, schools, or districts.

George A. Coleman Excellence in Equity Award

SERC created this award to honor and highlight the demonstration of extraordinary acts of commitment and courage to ensure all students, especially students of color and culturally and linguistically diverse students, are valued and respected in their school experience.

Award recipients will be selected based on their steadfast and unwavering action in:

- Advocating for children and families of color;
- Galvanizing individuals and coalitions toward equitable action;
- Taking risks in conversation and action regarding issues of equity for racially, linguistically and culturally diverse groups;
- Engaging the diverse needs of members of an education community and reconciling them toward a shared vision; and
- Furthering the exchange of information that affects thinking and effects conviction on matters of equity.

Nominations of students are encouraged.

VISIT WWW.CTSERC.ORG FOR ENTRY FORMS.

Nominators and awardees will be notified no later than March 31, 2020 and invited to attend a recognition award celebration held the evening of May 19, 2020. (They will also be invited to attend the Dismantling Systemic Racism Conference on May 20, 2020.) Please submit completed nomination packages to SERC by Friday, February 21, 2020 to the attention of:

Heather Dawes, Project Specialist, SERC
100 Roscommon Drive, #110, Middletown, CT 06457
or by email – dawes@ctserc.org

We look forward to receiving your nomination packages. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Heather at SERC, (860) 632-1485, ext. 263, or dawes@ctserc.org.

Who is George A. Coleman?

George A. Coleman has infused his values of equity and opportunity within all of his roles in Connecticut education. As an administrator at the CT State Department of Education (CSDE), including two appointments as Acting Commissioner, Mr. Coleman continuously advanced the truth that all children can learn. He has refused to accept educational disparities and has made the most of his positions to advocate for the highest opportunities for all students. Mr. Coleman has also been a critical partner with SERC in advancing an educational system that confronts the impact of racism among children of color and their families. In addition to Acting Commissioner, Mr. Coleman's other roles during his 24-year career at CSDE were Deputy Commissioner, Associate Commissioner, Chief of the Bureau of Curriculum and Teaching, and Chief of the Bureau of Early Childhood Education. Mr. Coleman retired from CSDE in October 2011 and has since joined the Boards of SERC and the SERC Foundation. He is currently a private contractor for Cooperative Educational Services in Trumbull.
