KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Maysa Akbar, Ph.D., ABPP, author of Urban Trauma: A Legacy of Racism, is the Founder and CEO of Integrated Wellness Group, a psychotherapy practice in New Haven which focuses on at-risk urban children, adults, and families. In addition to her private practice, she is an Assistant Clinical Professor at the Yale School of Medicine, Child Study Center. She completed both her pre- and post-doctoral training at Yale Child Study Center. Active in her community, Dr. Akbar serves on the Board of Directors of The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven.

Who Should Attend

Families, school district leaders, teachers, family engagement specialists, state partners, and community leaders. All who work at the intersection of families and learning.

The conference will provide families and professionals with a forum to learn, network, and share family engagement policy and high-impact practice. Morning and afternoon breakout sessions will be offered.
